

With a Grade 8 classical piano certification from Trinity college, London and formal education and experience in the software and technology space , Meshach Jayanth handles the creative and artistic endeavors of the firm. From offering professional training for music certifications to handling events, working on projects pertaining to art, expression and aesthetics, Meshach contributes in significant capacity to handling the tech infrastructure of the firm alongside helping clients achieve heights of musical expression and expertise.

